REVIEW OF CALCULUS EARLY TRANSCENDENTALS 8TH EDITION SOLUTIONS MANUAL PDF

- The book, "Waiting for the World to End," made me think about my own life and relationships I have. While I was reading I could always relate what was happening in the story to something in my own life. One example of this is when Tom first saw Mary and he was thinking about her when he was changing the oil in his car. Tom thought to himself that he was better than Mary's husband was. I once saw a girl I was interested in, but she already had a boyfriend. I just kept thinking to myself that I was better than her boyfriend was. Another point about the book is the ending. It makes your mind wonder about why did the writer end the book the way she did. One conclusion I came up with is that the writer may be planning to write a sequel. "Waiting for the World to End", is a wonderful book and it has related so much to my life that I am sure that it relates to so many more people feel the same way.

- This book is written by a writer who smelled the cordite, and experienced the savagery and the horror of the random death that is war. The rise thru the ranks of the book's principal character, Sam Damon, from private to general, is a story well told. Anton Myrer's work is on a par with James Webb's "Fields of Fire", William Manchester's "Goodbye Darkness", and Galloway and Moore's "We Were Soldiers Once, And Young". If you like reading of military tales and history don't miss this book. It won't let you put it down.
