REVIEW OF AWR REPORT DETAILED ANALYSIS NEW YORK ORACLE NYOUG

- This is my second book by Jennifer Cruise and I really enjoyed it. I must admit, I had trouble putting it down. A story about a gorgeous serial dater who meets a plain "chubby" girl and end out out to dinner in part because of a bet. (Lots of bets of various sizes are made throughout this book and I think it works for this story.) As they have mutual friends that are involved, and a mutual love of the same restaurant, they end up seeing more of each other over time and something starts to happen. They try to resist and you can almost feel the sexual tension in the story. Loved that. It's absolutely believe in spite of the "types" of people they are as Cruise doesn't a great job writing their story. You find many things about the characters lives, parents, past relationships and I think that adds to the credibility of the match. Much drama and humor is added to the story with a jealous ex-boyfriend and girlfriend who will stop at nothing to keep them apart. They both have interesting families (mostly not in a good way), a sister's wedding to deal with, a sweet nephew, complimented by a great group of friends. It all adds to the charm. The only issue that I had with this story was the climatic ending. That was a little unreal and not the as romantic as I anticipated due to the amount of tension throughout the book....and I felt there was too much emphasis on Krispy Kremes. Perhaps I just don't get the draw of the donuts.

- Rather than retelling the plot, I'll focus my short comments on my reaction/review of the novel: I really enjoyed this novel with all of its sauciness and sexual tension. This book, more than any others I've read in awhile, really builds the chemistry between the two characters so that you can't put it down! If you're wanting some good, escapist reading, this is a good choice.
