REVIEW OF BIG IDEAS MATH GRADE 6 WORKBOOK

- Too many characters that appear for a sentence or two and then just vanish into the London fog of the late 19th century.

- While this is certainly one of Dickens' shorter novels, that does not stop me from considering it an exquisite masterpiece. In all honesty "Hard Times" (1854) is full of chilling passages and convincing characters such as Thomas and Louisa Gradgrind. There is not one single dull moment. Also, every chapter is full of striking images. In addition, the suspense and dramatic irony are well placed. To be sure, many of Dickens' full length books such as "Dombey & Son" (1848) and "Bleak House" (1853) are exquisite as well. But, don't let the thin length of "Hard Times" fool you. It is a masterpiece and one I highly recommend!
