REVIEW OF ENGLISH

GRAMMAR 4TH EDITION AZAR

- I loved this book! It's exciting and shows what life was like back in those times. All the boys in my class thought it was horrible and boring, and mostly gross because Rifka has to get examined and has to take her clothes off. But that is how life was when you were an immigrant. This book is dramatic and descriptive and also sad and touching. A must-read!

- This is a very very very very good book, I read it 2 days and I needed to read it for Summer Reading! Rifka is a Jew from Russia. The doctors refuse to let her board the ship for America so she goes to Belgium and doctors take care of her illness. When she is fully cured she leaves Belgium and goes on a ship to Ellis Isle. The doctors keep her there for a month and they let her go into America with her Family! This is a book you cannot put down, this is 1 of my favorite books ever!
