REVIEW OF THE DEFINITIVE GUIDE TO SCREENWRITING SYD FIELD

- While I'm sure this book will be good, because Brashares rocks, this is NOT the Fourth book in The Sisterhood series. This is a novel for adults following a young girl into her 20's.

- This title is another respectable addition to this artful series of books introducing young people (and others) to the work of beloved poets. The book opens with a short biography of Frost. I enjoyed it immensely - as a writer I was inspired to see that this Pulitzer Prize winner had to actually leave his home in order to write because at first, no one thought his work was high enough quality to publish. He gave up his farm to write. He first wrote his poetry at night, when the farm was still until finally - he focused on his main love - words. The poetry is divided by season, with Henri Sorenson's glorious watercolor illustrations providing the perfect counterpoint and setting to the words of Frost. Savor this book as a beginners guide - and lover's meditation - on the work of Frost.
