REVIEW OF HONDA EU3000IS MANUAL

- First off, I love James Patterson anyway, but I really liked this book. It wasn't as good as Suzannes Diary for Nicholas, but it was definitely worth reading. This book moves really quickly and doesn't take long to read at all. I read it in 2 short nights. Sometimes it's nice to have a quick read after you've finished a long book. I thought the characters in this book were great and people you truly felt comfortable with. It was a sad book, but had a good ending that I was very happy with. I would definitely recommend this book to anyone.

- I first read James Patterson with his book Suzanne's Diary for Nicholas and just LOVED that book (shedding tears and all)! I recently picked up Sam's Letters on a clearance table at a book store...don't know HOW I missed it when it first came out! Both of these books are written somewhat similarly (the letter, diary style) and are really enjoyable to read. I found myself not being able to wait until Jennifer read the next letter from Sam to see what it entailed! I've not read any other JP books; none of the titles, covers, etc. have caught my eye. I suppose I'll check the reviews and see if I can pick up another one that equals these two!
