REVIEW OF MESC CODE

- I was introduced to LITTLE WOMEN at the age of 12 or 13. I have read it scores of times since and loved it unceasingly. I have cried with the March sisters, shared their joys, their tragedies, rejoiced in their triumphs, and laughed at their mishaps. This book captured me as a child and has never let me go. I treasure it and would wish every person could have a chance to read it and treasure it also.

- This book is a tale of sadness truth and love. IT is a good book for you to read to you kids. truly touching and funny at tmes. A poor family with the father away in a war. The mother and her four daughters must make do. There are tradgedy like when He youngest daugter falls through the ice and grave tradgedys like when the daughter Beth dies. Read this book to be touched and filled with hope.
