REVIEW OF HITLER QUOTES

• I was given this book to read as part of a Book Club with the ladies of my church. I let out an audible groan....historical biblical fiction. This was going to be a chore, like Shakespere in Igh School. I was wrong. I was quickly drawn into this story, and couldn't wait to read more. This story brought the Old Testament to life. It gave feeling to the stories had read multiple times. A great read!!!!

• This copy of Stevenson's excellent historical fiction piece is particularly attractive from the photo on the front cover, but the size is unusually wide and thin. No big deal really, except that there is no title or any mark at all on the book's spine. Sitting on my shelf among hundreds of books, I tend to like to see the title. Worst of all, the print is unusually small. I'm by no means far-sighted and the print is still too small. Enough to make eyes sore small. Recommend the story and dissapointed at this copy. It's bound more like a workbook or handbook, and is hardly the right book for a coffee table book. Sort of thoughtless choices.
