REVIEW OF 16 AHR EXPO LG AIR CONDITIONING SOLUTIONS

- Very easy, fast read, and right on the mark. Makes you remember that as Americans, we each have the opportunity to create and live the lives we choose. I was disappointed a bit in that he repetitively referenced the same historical figures throughout the book - it was as if there were no other Americans of significance to note as examples. The constant reference to George Washington, Tom Paine, Lincoln, JFK, became too obvious - as if he couldn't think of anyone else. The reference to the movie characters Jefferson Smith, and Rick Blaine though insightful became too repititous, as is there were none others. It wasn't a bad book, but not a great one. As I finished reading it, I realized that Chris is also living and pursuing the American dream - by writing this book. When complete, and upon reading his references - what a simple premise for a book. It focuses on the obvious, reminds us of who we are, and where we come from, without digging very deep. It is knowledge every American should, if not already has. The research must have been done over a weekend, and the writing on the next weekend. Why didn't I think of it first.

- This was the first Susan Andersen book I had ever read and it was fantastic! I'll definitely buy ALL of her books from now on. Sexy, funny, wonderful story! Could not put this book down!
