REVIEW OF PDF BUILDING

MAINTENANCE FORMS CHECKLISTS AND PROCEDURES

- Palmer must have read my mind - she put 3 of my favorites in one beautiful book. I did not know that this was a reissue with a new title, but anyone who bothered to read the back of the book would have known what stories were in it before buying it. I think it's a shame to give a great book a bad rating because the reader made a mistake. These fine stories by an awesome writer don't deserve such pettiness. Keep up the wonderful work, Diana!
- Grandma takes our little hero to the beach, just them two. And our hero wants to do all sorts of things - fly a kite, swim, build a sand castle - but most of these activities don't go quite right. But, hero and Grandma still have a wonderful time! The story isn't anything that stellar, but the illustrations are adorable (the expressions of the characters in the background, the continuing saga of the spider and the grasshopper, etc.). The illustrations add a lot to the "warm and fuzzy" feeling of the story, and will give visually inclined children a lot to pour over.
