Carl Gustav Jung - sinkronicitet i još ponešto Prava priča o sinkronicitetu započinje suradnjom dva izuzetna mislioca, psihologa Carla Junga i fizičara Wolfganga Paulija. Njihov koncept sinkroniciteta rodio se iz braka fizikalnog i psihologijskog pristupa.

REVIEW OF

JUNG PSIHOLOGIJA I ALKEMIJA

- This book is O.K ,even though it doesn't match The Chosen. Ash is so much better than he was in #1 , even though you can tell he hasn't really had a personality makeover . I loved the bit where Mary-Lynette is taking STRIPS off him for patronizing Jeremy , and he suddenly screams " For G-d's sake,don't patronize me !" G-d , he's cute (Quinn's cuter though, thank G-d she mentions him !) Please E-mail me - honestly - if you want to talk about Lisa's ADORABLE characters (male or female) . By now , Natalya

- I'm sorry, but I just find the way Mary Lennette treats Ash to be just hillarious. Mary Lennette is like a Nancy Drew. Ok, actually I never liked the Nancy Drew series and never read them, but the book kind of starts out with a mystery like that. She's just a character who if Iknew her in person, I'd probably like her. She's smart, and stands pretty much up for what she believes in and really does care for people. She's just totally not the person I could ever picture Ash with. I still can giggle at that part where she realizes he can see more in the dark and without thinking just shines the flashlight into his eyes. She discovers horribly diliated pupils, and Ash is just screaming out in pain. Then, right after that she asks him to tell her how many stars he can see, and he's just like "None. I'm blind!" I don't know, maybe the way I said it isn't that funny, but I thought it was hilarious. Ash is hilarious with his little side comments and he's simply a very interesting character. It took me awhile to get myself to finally buy it, but its definetly a good read.
