REVIEW OF ADOBE ILLUSTRATOR FOR FASHION

DESIGN

- This book was very helpful. It provided insight on how dogs think and interact with their environment and gives a very clear and concise way to housebreak your dogs. As someone with older puppies/adults, it's nice to have a book that isn't entirely geared toward young puppies. In addition, it offers solutions to many potential problems and has a very helpful FAQ section.
- I first read William Goldman's book when I was 13 and have been terribly addicted to it ever since. When William Goldman was a child, his father had read him a story that he fell in love with. A tale of adventure, pirates, royalty and more. As he grew, the book was always close to his heart so when his son was old enough, Goldman wanted to share this book with him. That is what makes this book so special, it is really two books in one. The first is the fairy tale in all its glory. The other, is a wonderful glimpse into both the family and professional life of the author as he searches frantically for the book that defined his childhood relationship with his father. As a child myself, I loved the fairy tale aspect of the book but as I grew it was the "behind the scenes" part that I appreciate most. And while I know that all of that was entirely fiction, it is written so well, I really didn't care. This is a book that absorbs you the moment you pick it up. I highly recommend this wonderful book for anyone!
