REVIEW OF RANG DALE PHARMACOLOGY 7TH EDITION IN ENGLISH

- Cheaper by the Dozen, by Frank B. Gilbreth, is an excellent book because it makes people who read it laugh. For example, one time father yells at the people on the sidewalk and calls them funny names. The reason this is so funny is because you don't often see grown men yelling at each other in public. Then there is the time that Lillian bobbed her hair on her own. This is funny because the results are disastrous. This book should be read by all middle-schoolers who enjoy a good laugh.

- This is a beautifully heart wrenching novel, a talented piece to be ignored in any way whatsoever. It portrays the grimmer side of what should be the typically happy fairy tale
