REVIEW OF ACUTE HEART FAILURE DIAGNOSIS AND MANAGEMENT NICE

- This book was a portrait made of words depicting a society controlled totally by humans. This community had everything one could want or need and gave purpose to all the lives existing there. There were no human needs unmet. Or were there? How can we exist in a world without love? This book is a wonderful tool to show children why it is so important that humans are individuals. It is important to have our own opinions and to create a balance among our ideas. The ideal world champions diversity, not sameness.

- As an avid realistic fiction reader I wholeheartedly recommend this book. This is perhaps the only science fiction/ dystopia book I have read and thoroughly enjoyed. Lowry's writing is wonderful and the story is well thought out. I loved it the first time I was introduced to it in fourth grade or so and love it some five years later. It is a quick read and time well spent.
