REVIEW OF STAR DELTA STARTER CONTROL WIRING DIAGRAM ANSWER

- I have read s-f for many years (since Heinlein's heyday in the 50's), and in general I am rather accepting of not-so-great novels. I have read and greatly enjoyed these authors' previous work (Alpha Centauri). White Light is the worst SF story I have read in a long time. The "space exploration" part is lame and seems quite unsophisticated or convincing, and the same goes for the "cosmology" part. As previous reviewers have noted, the characters were not likeable nor even very interesting. Regarding the sex, that was about the only part I sort of liked, but I wasn't looking for an erotic novel. If someone gives you this book and you have nothing else to do, maybe it is worth reading. Otherwise, forget it!

- "The Giver", a book review by Johannes and Vitali, two German pupils in the 10th grade. After we read the book in the English class at our school we'd like to give you a book review with our opinion about this book and we hope that this might help you. Jonas lives in a community where you are always observed and where you have to do everything you are told. At first he is happy in his community. He has friends and has a usual life as a citizen in his family unit. He lives together with his sister Lily, his father and his mother. In the community there are different ceremonies for every age. After the Ceremony of Twelve, Jonas is declared to be the new Receiver of Memory and starts his training with getting memories of many eras before he lived. He gets memories of war, elephant hunts, snow and riding a sled, sunshine and such things. But very important is that he learns to see colours. That's important because no one of the citizens can see colours. In this world they achieved "sameness". They got neither weather nor any differences between them. When Jonas begins to discover the dark side of the community he is in fear of it. He begins to see, that nothing is as perfect as it seems. He discovers that in this community many people are murdered every day when they break a rule or when they get too old. When the foster child Gabriel of his family unit shall be killed he decides to escape with him to "Elsewhere", a different and better world.

The opinion of Johannes: At first I found this book boring but when we read further parts of the book it got more and more interesting then I began to read this book with more interest and I began to read it very fast. In the end I found that book interesting and informative but I think that it is not really good written.

The opinion of Vitali: I found it interesting to read about a book which deals with a different community and with other rules than we have. But I can't imagine that no one apart from the Receiver can see colours or hear music. First I found the book a little bit confusing, but then it was clearer. The book is well written but for a German pupil it is a little bit difficult to understand all the vocabulary. Also I think that the ending is felicitous, because it makes you think further, what could happen.
