REVIEW OF ABSOLUT BOOK THE ABSOLUT VODKA ADVERTISING STORY

- This guy wrote a great book for all motorcyclists who travel the USA Roads. He has several miles under his belt and I have personally met him. The Book life is a rode was informative for some of us younger riders, had lots of rode information and was very pleasing to read! Funny at times, and held my attention throughout. This is the kind of riding I like to read about, I've never been on such a ride, but it does place a spark in my 50 year old heart! The Girl in the book is a dream to a lot of riders, and it brings out some of our own imaginations too. I believe that you'll enjoy the book. I give it 5 Stars for entertainment, 5 Stars for story telling, and at times... 5 Stars for all the excitement. I have read it twice and picked up more the second time than the first. Thanks Daniel Meyer for a most enjoyable book!

- I bought this book for my college class instead of the book I was supposed to buy and I'm glad I did. I read this book within 3 days and I feel that it taught me the basics of most things I needed to know. It lacked a little detail in some of the more involved features of html and I don't think that chapter five (Using advanced Web Page features) should have contained so much data with so little description of how to use it. It goes into great detail on the actual structure of a web page and the importance of a well thought out plan. In all, it's a good starting point.
