REVIEW OF BARNES INVERTEBRATE ZOOLOGY

- I thought this was one of, if not the best, of LJ Smith's books. I liked the irony in having a vampire, who OTHER vampires think of as cold and ruthless, falling in love with a feared vampire hunter who hates vampires with a passion because of a incident in her past. I just have one question though.....Quinn is a 400 yr. old vampire and immortal.....Rashel is human and refuses to become a vampire. There is also no hint that she is an Old Soul like Hannah (in Soulmate). So what will Quinn do when Rashel grows old and dies why he remains forever at 18? What will the other immortal halves of the soulmates do? The lamia can grow old but "made" vampires can't. So does anybody have a opinion on this? Its one of the only major flaws that i see in the series. Other than that i love the series and can't wait till Strange Fate

comes out! - Kaelar

- I really loved this book. It made you laugh and made you sad. I wish I could have the courage to rescue dogs in the same manner as Randy Grim does. Truly inspiring stories.
