REVIEW OF DEMAG CRANE SERVICE MANUAL ELECTRICAL BY KANAKO EIDA

- Courtesy of Love Romances Deborah Olstrom is a foster parent to 4 children and is known as the best foster mom in Forest Heights. She needs an affordable house immediately within an approved neighborhood, to keep her family together. She makes a mistake in confronting the wrong man, Cord Delafied, who she thinks is the landlord of her rental house, but it was Cord's father, Marshall, who sent her the eviction. It is out of the question for Cord to help Deborah as he has a strained relationship with his father. Father and son have been fighting over a house which has been left by Cord's grandmother since she died. According to her will, Cord must get married to inherit the house. Cord thinks that a marriage of convenience would be the perfect solution to his problem as well as Deborah's, if only she agrees to marry him. How so? So that Cord can get the house and Deborah can have a house to live in. Cord suggests his outrageous proposal to Deborah, but she thinks he is out of his mind. Then, Deborah's rebellious foster son gets into trouble and no one but Cord comes to his rescue. She agrees to Cord's proposal, and Cord promises her not to take advantage during their temporary marriage. However, Cord finds it hard to keep his promise as Deborah seems to be the only woman who can give his chest a warm pulse and bring laughter to his life. ROOM FOR LOVE is not just a modern tale of a marriage of convenience. It also points out several problems concerning foster families, disease as well as child abuse. Readers would take up with Deborah's character right from the beginning and hope that she will stay married to Cord till the end. Although the romance between Deborah and Cord seems to be a fairy tale but that's what romance is about! Anything could happen with the magic pen of the writer.

- I couldn't connect with Lee Fiora on any level- she would have been sympathetic if she had any likable characteristics what-so-ever. She never had any moments of growth and all her personal reflection (ad nauseum) did nothing but contribute to her lack of self-esteem. While the book was extremely readable, I never found myself rooting for her, it was more like I was extremely embarrassed for her. It was kind of like looking through someone's dirty laundry hamper.
