A Story of Violent Faith Temple University Press

The result of the application of strategic management philosophy to the nexus of entrepreneurship, innovation, and economy, strategic entrepreneurship fosters sustainable development and competitiveness. This volume provides an introduction to the theories of strategic entrepreneurship and accounts of their real-world applications in the entrepreneurial sector. The book is divided into three parts. Chapters in Part I discuss strategic entrepreneurship dynamics and mechanisms. Chapters in Part II focus on strategic entrepreneurship concepts and theories. Chapters in Part III provide global examples of strategic entrepreneurship practices in action. Presenting a view of strategic entrepreneurship across diverse sectors and industries, this edited volume will be attractive to researchers and students interested in management, entrepreneurship, economics, public administration, and public policy, as well as corporate strategists, managers, and policymakers looking to integrate the principles of strategic entrepreneurship.

World's Animals Longman

This lush book of photography represents National Geographic's Photo Ark, a major cross-platform initiative and lifelong project by photographer Joel Sartore to make portraits of the world's animals-especially those that are endangered. His powerful message, conveyed with humor, compassion, and art- to know these animals is to save them. Sartore intends to photograph every animal in captivity in the world. He is circling the globe, visiting zoos and wildlife rescue centers to create studio portraits of 12,000 species, with an emphasis on those facing extinction. He has photographed more than 6,000 already and now, thanks to a multi-year partnership with National Geographic, he may reach his goal. This book showcases his animal portraits- from tiny to mammoth, from the Florida grasshopper sparrow to the greater one-horned rhinoceros. Paired with the eloquent prose of veteran wildlife writer Douglas Chadwick, this book presents a thought-provoking argument for saving all the species of our planet.

REVIEW OF CUTTING EDGE THIRD EDITION

- I read each word and absorbed it as though my mind were a sponge because Gaskell's viewpoint was so sensible and thought provoking. In light of our current economic and political situation, national and global, I've been thinking a lot about class struggle and more importantly the issues of workers and business owners. So much of our hostility in the political arena is related to this issue particularly now since all groups are suffering. Gaskell addresses this issue beautifully and from the reader's viewpoint seems to be in favor of the workers with the objective of evoking sympathy towards them. In reality, her portrayal probably WAS the workers' viewpoint. It provided phenomenal insight into the mindset of the social group, specifically union factory workers within the human interest context of their daily lives and suffering with the added bonus of a bittersweet love story. It made me more aware and better able to understand the importance of sound economic practices and the government's responsibility towards keeping their largest population afloat.

- Martin review about the book is accurate...it is a rehash of primitive Marketing 0001 concepts and offers nothing but repackaged and ancient maxims in the new IT speak...I mean if you read the review by Mitchell a "Top 10 Reviewer" (what ever that is) you will see Marketing 0001 drivell littered in litany...unless you are thick or truly a dim bulb about sales and marketing, these "revelations" are straight from an introductory sales and marketing book...save yourself the money and buy Kalkota...
