REVIEW OF KULINER RESEP MASAKAN CARA MEMASAK MAKANAN

- Uncle Tom's cabin is a famous work of American literature, because of its historical context and its political importance as a piece of anti-slavery propoganda as much as for the story and quality of the writing. The phrase "Uncle Tom" has even gained some currency as a derogatory term in modern usage. The book captures and condences much of the worst elements of slavery in the south as it recounts the trials of several slaves, their owners and their families. The story is enthralling and the crossing of the ice flow remains one of the more famous scenes in literature. The story unashamedly promotes the anti-slavery position and promotes its activists Apparently this book had considerable impact in its day and although to some extent some of the thunder has since been stolen by blockbusters such as Roots, is still a powerful book.

- I loved this book - took a while to get my head around the language, but quickly found it to be a very captivating read. Would definitely reccommend, makes you think, makes you want to keep reading, and I will be reading again sometime!
