REVIEW OF HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES OF DYING AND DEATH IN AMERICA BY CAROL BARKER

- I was sooo happy to find this pocket ESV. I wanted something the size of a Gideon Bible. This is about the same size. The text is easy to read and the size is perfect for a back pocket or purse. I found the pages to be thick for the size, the Bible feels and looks very durable and the cover is super soft and flexible. Great Bible, great buy!

- This is a great vintage chase/suspense type novel that I happened upon by accident. I'm glad I did. Most of the action takes place in Ireland as an unsuspecting math professor has microfilm planted on him. The author writes with wit and humor about this bungling professor. If you enjoy vintage detective novels, you will find this a fun read from the 1960s.
