REVIEW OF 7 FORD FUSION REPAIR GUIDE FILE TYPE PDF

- This is the 3rd in the Cynster series and about a main character throughout the series, so it was, for lack of a better phrase, "necessary" to read this one. However, I find the plot and resulting events not very plausible. It stretches the imagination too much to swallow Vane Cynster, a typical London rake and "man about town" is so devoted to his Godmother that he would spend weeks looking for a petty thief in her unorthodox household. And while Patience Debbington is a nice enough character, she seems to lack the "pazazz" that the other heroines of this series have, in spades.

- Just to buck the trend...I agree totally with the comments regarding balance and content - but I just didn't think the questions presented here were hard/comprehensive enough! - relative to those I received on the actual exams! I initially used this book to finish off after a MOC course on TCP/IP and failed the exam - just. I used additional material to flesh out the concepts, and passed easily today. (On a more positive note - I did find it's sister publication on Networking Essentials an excellent/comprehensive prep tool).
