REVIEW OF TOM 700

- Delightfully light tales mixed with whimsical watercolor illustrations is the recipe for an all-around fun book. Some of the tales are well-known, and others are new, but each of them is entertaining and suitably written for reading out loud or to oneself. This is a book I'd keep on hand for a quick pick-me-up since the antics of each clever hero are sure to make you smile. My one complaint is that some of the stories took on too much of a modern colloquial air, which detracted from their folk-tale feel (but this is a minor detail since it never interferes with the overall point of the story). Read this book... it's a lot of fun!

- Wanted a book that would give our grandson a bit of history that we enjoyed as children. Coupled with the coonskin hat we gave him it was a big hit.
