REVIEW OF ARIKUNTO SUHARSIMI 2002

- I've read many success and personal growth books over the years. Steve Chandler's 100 Ways to Motivate Yourself is definitely worth getting. My favourite four ways are:- Keep your eyes on the prize- Learn to sweat in peace- Put on your game face- Advertise to yourselfI found each (and the examples Steve uses to flesh them out) to be particularly useful in getting myself to be more productive. The first three are also great for dealing with potentially difficult or unpleasant situations.

- Written in a claustrophobic, stream-of-consciousness style, this is a portrait of a young woman deeply damaged by emotional and physical incest. The broken chronology and distorted perceptions make the reader feel as confused as the protagonist herself. I had to force myself to finish reading the book. It might have been worthwhile if there were some character development and resolution of the protagonist's psychological problems. Instead I was disappointed by an apparent happy ending that seemed forced and unbelievable. Marble Skin may be well-written (apart from the contrived ending), but it's certainly not enjoyable reading.
