- I have to say I enjoyed the book. It's well written with good descriptive text and enjoyable characters. In some areas it is quite funny, particularly the "spanglish" uttered by some of the New Mexican natives. But it also lacks something in it's "coming of age"

message, partially because it steers widely clear of the young man's sexuality and also at times makes him a little too courageous ... almost unbelievably willing to confront problems which a real teenager would not be able to deal with

- My title says it all. I thought the details, the perspectives, the obvious professional experience of the authors provided amazing case insight. very well written.
