REVIEW OF WONDERFUL

STORY OF JESUS THE GATAXI

- Drama, romance, battle, excitement, escape. All are combined in the finale of the original Hornblower series. Our hero's quest begins as a French POW awaiting a firing squad, his friend and 1st Lt. Bush facing the same. Can Hornblower somehow with a wounded man it tow somehow escape a squad of French soldiers and their cruel officer and return to the white cliffs of Dover? Since this is not the last book in the series we of course know the answer. A book with style and class, and with Hornblower still not shaking the fears and phobias or his future which seem to forever haunt him. We also see the character of Brown developed more fully as a feature of the series. The playing off of Brown physical abilities and the class differences between him and the officers make for great reading. Not to be missed. Of course you can say that about every book in the series.

- the raging quiet isn't sherryl jordan's best (winter of fire is by far my favorite) but I am definetly a fan. It's beautifully written and very entertaining like her other books, and the characters are totally awesome. if you haven't read any of sherryl jordan's books this would be a good place to start (reading winter of fire first spoiled me totally). I luv how it wasn't set in a specific time or place- that was cool. sherryl if you're reading this you're the best writer ever!!!!!!
