REVIEW OF GEOMETRY CHAPTER 5 TEST A ANSWER KEY FULLEXAMS COM

- If Pip had been a real young man rather than a book, I could have warned him stay away from that girl and all the trouble that came with her. And had Pip been a real young man, he would have been equally as receptive to that advice as the book is. In short, "Great Expectations" is not a book but rather, in a very direct and almost literal way, it IS its main character.

- This is a wonderful read, haunting, heartbreaking and uplifting. The author's crisp, sparse prose is captivating and compelling. Marguerite is such a complex, multi-layered character, at times your'e not sure whether to love her or hate her. When her secrets are ultimately revealed, her true motives of devotion and love shine through. A great choice for a book club that I highly recommend.
