REVIEW OF ENGLISH FOR LIFE ENGLISH READERS WRITING B2 UPPER

- I am a tai-chi teacher who has fibromyalgia, arthritis, and back trouble..I use tai-chi for my exercise program and to deal with stress and balance. To begin each class I use a sit down relaxation time where we focus on dan-tien breathing. At this time I open up Bill's book wherever it falls and we share the "tidbit for the day" from Bill's great collection of tai-chi sayings from "SAGE SIFU SAYS" or the neat information boxes on each page...my class enjoys this saying of the day and it adds to our knowledge of tai-chi...Bill Douglas works extremely hard to promote tai-chi and qi-gong all over the world. I am one of the lucky ones to learn Bill's tai-chi and preform it on the Nelson Atkin's Art Museum lawn with a 100 others at one time...Bill is a terrific guy who devotes his own life to helping others with tai-chi and his book is a valuable collection of good information that anyone interested in tai-chi can use...Thanks Bill. I now live in NC and am spreading Bill's tai-chi to this area. from Sharon Faucett, a fibromyalgia victim.

- The book is wonderful with number of different characters intertwined. The book is long, but once you get into the plot you really don't want to put it down. All the characters are unique and each is interesting in there own way.
