REVIEW OF APPLIED PRACTICE CATCHER IN THE RYE ANSWERS

- This was an excellent book, and I recommend this to everybody. It held me in suspense till the very end. The way it makes you think emotional and psychologically about the love of Winston and Julia, and how Big Brother destoryed it. The mutual trust between Winston and the man he trusted and how it was broken, and the pain he suffered more mentally than physically really make you think. After reading this book, I am sure you will be pondering its agenda and reality for time to come, and you will learn to think of your own life and freedom.I recommend also "Animal Farm" by George Orwell Also an excellent look at communism.
- In my opinion this is Orwell's best novel and is also my favorite book. It can happen to us as long as their are power hungry human beings in this world.
