REVIEW OF SANTA BIBLIA THE BIBLE THROUGH HISPANIC EYES

• A word of caution here, this is not a beginners book. More like an advanced or an intermediate book. If this is a beginner's book, then I would hate to see an advanced book. The first 2 chapters were okay, but starting with Chapter 3 it is a real lu-lu! It goes on and on about web controls and custom controls and dynamic control and customized templates and cascading style sheets. I think it would have been best if some of that advanced material had been left out and kept more simple for chapter 3 and concentrated on developing an application that didn't have to rely on all kinds of custom controls and style sheets and all other kinds of stuff. Keep it simple stupid would have been more the order of the day when it came to writing this book.

• Get out your notebook and pen because you'll need it to keep track of all of the people and all of the various lineages. I finally gave up and just decided to enjoy the character Vane. He was so well written, a little clueless as to dating but he so clearly loves the heroine and his brother. Actually I enjoyed this more than any of the other Dark Hunter books except for the first one. So will you.
