REVIEW OF CASE NEW HOLLAND KOBELCO ENGINE ISUZU 6WG1T ENGINE SERVICE REPAIR

- Another Orwell Down the Road? What Orwell did with 1984 is truly amazing. Look around you today, Big Brother has all but come into existence. They are watching you! Who is watching me? You will find out soon enough. I'm still shivering at the thought. Thank you Mrs. Hanthrop-Fifteen years later I finally did read this book and absolutely loved it. But I must say that was then, this is now. Now I have found the next generation man of insight and novel for my time. Mind Bomb, by John Mayer is comparable to 1984 or Stephen King's The Stand to which Mayer takes this "More is NOT better" idea concerning the awesome deluge of people in the world and really makes you wonder if everything is going to fall apart. Or if there is someone out there ready to rise up and make certain it will. I highly recommend both books. Please read them, but note that Mind Bomb is only available at Xlibris.com. E-Mail me if you have trouble finding it

- I first read this book in grade 7. I was just discovering books at the time and soaked up the distopia genre. I gave book reports on Clockwork Orange and Brave New World, instead of The Outsiders like other students. I recommend this book to anyone who enjoys a good Terry Gilliam film (Brazil, 12 Monkeys, King Fisher, Montey Python) or for teens who don't want cheesy books aimed for your age (i hated the Outsiders).
