REVIEW OF ANALYZING POLICY CHOICES CONFLICTS AND PRACTICES

- This book has all the M's that count: Mystery, Mischief and Mayhem. I've read it twice and plan to read it again soon because it never fails to amaze me. The characters are full of mystery; I doubt I will ever discover everything there is to learn about them, they are among the most intriguing and complex characters in any Steinbeck novel, or any novel for that matter. This novel looks deeply into the story of Cain and Abel and theology in general, but not in the boring listen-to-what-I-think-of-this manner, it is creative, mischievous, harsh, and true. In addition to being a well-thought-out novel with a captivating, complex plot, it is also an insightful study of human nature and religion.

- "East of Eden" is a magnificent novel with a great story line. The main themes in the story are redemption, inheritance and most important of all, free will. Please read my full review at my blog: mehdijamei . wordpress . com
