REVIEW OF CORRECTION LIVRE DE MATH SECONDE HACHETTE DECLIC

- Our class really loved Love That Dog. We liked the way it was written in short sentences making the book quick and easy to read. We liked the funny way that Jack talked, because he made word pictures in our minds, and he asked strange questions. Even though Jack didn't think he liked poetry and that it was just for girls, he became a pretty good poet by writing poems in his journal to his teacher. A few of our boys thought that there wasn't enough excitement or action, but then it wasn't really that kind of a book. We give Love That Dog five stars.

- Playboy May 1998 is 176 pages and feature Geri Halliwell (aka Ginger Spice) on the front cover. Geri's nude photos are not that great and not that bad either, at best it is average. Even the article that accompanied the pictorial was more about the Spice Girls instead of Geri Halliwell and when they were taken. Deanna Brooks is this month Playmate. Deanna and the other two pictorials in the magazine are great. Next is Playmate Revisited and that is Verónica Gamba - Playboy Playmate of the Month for November 1983 and Brazil's Playboy Playmate of the Month for December 1983. The final nude pictorial is that of Miss America 1982 Elizabeth Ward Gracen. This month interview is with Scott Adams of Dilbert fame. I found his opinions on the workplace to be very funny. 20 Questions is with Ben Stiller and his answers were either funny or serious, it was hard to tell. There is a funny article called Bubba Bubble written by Arianna Huffington that she is involved in a mythical meeting with President Clinton and Newt Gingrich in the President's Hot Tub. Other articles included are: Twenty-Five Things Guys Do Right In Bed, Make It Champagne, Playboy's 1998 Baseball Preview, Netmail (fiction), and this month forum Sex Tour of Washington. Playboy May 1998 pictorials and articles are great and gets an AAA+++.
