REVIEW OF FREE RIFT QUEST GUIDE

- I remember when I was in 4th grade and my English teacher began to read the Hobbit to the class. Immediately I was drawn into this incredible story; it was *certainly* like nothing else I'd ever read! Even when the teacher stopped reading it for class, I'd skip lunch and recess just to hear him read this story. Fast forward. I am 19 years old now, and I just finished this book for the 3rd time. I still find it surprising that this book is really that good. Of all the things I liked when I was in 4th grade, the Hobbit is the only thing that I still like - no, love - today. TRULY a great book. You discover new things in the story each time you read it. Even after the third time, it still is a *truly* enjoyable book to read. Children's literature? No, children's literature nowadays is along the lines of "Goosebumps" or "Sweet Valley High." This isn't ANYTHING like today's "children's literature." Steer your kids away from the Goosebumps tales and get this book for them!

- i love this book of adventure and tales! i may not be done reading it but i love it so far :)
