REVIEW OF CHAPTER 7 SECTION 3 MONEY ELECTIONS WORKSHEET ANSWERS

- I read this book as a part of a class. In this class we discussed Washington's work as written from the 'trickster' perspective. In this light it was quite interesting to see how he points out hypocrasies indirectly, while apparently stating the opposite. Thus, creating a self-aware hypocrisy within the text itself. I'm not sure that I am yet convinced, however. The work often seems a little bit on the acquiescent side to me.
- But when all things are considered the book is not really that bad, in fact certain quotes are very uplifting. I would rather read this than one of the 5 thousand Chicken Soup for the Souls any day of the week.
