REVIEW OF MODERN DATABASE MANAGEMENT 12TH EDITION HOFFER TEST BANK

- I was really ready for whatever this author had to say. I was looking for content for a talk I had to give on biblical masculinity and femininity. I found enough material buried in the book to be useful, amidst many qualifiers and apologies. However, I found it almost impossible to find a truly coherent, let alone concise or powerful quote. That was disappointing! If you are going to posit something, be brave and posit it boldly! If you aren't right, then there is no need to say it. And if you are right, say it boldly so we can understand why it is important. I happen to think he is on to something. Just wish he had said it better.

- As a Christmas tradition, we make up a recipe in a jar to give every year to all of the couples in our family. We always pre-make the recipes to ensure that we like the way they taste before we give them to friends and family. We carefully selected a cookie recipe (Death by Chocolate Cookies) tried it, gave some to our friends, everybody loved the recipe. I stocked up on sugar and cocoa, lined up my jars and started filling them. Luckily I ran out of flour at 7 jars (forgot to get more flour when I was stocking up); I say luckily because by the time I had 2/3 of the sugar in one of the jars (with the chocolate chips still to go) I was completely out of room! Now, mind you,

I DID make the age old mistake of assuming (and we all know what happens when we assume) that the recipe would fit in the jar without adding up the measurements of the ingredients to discover that I had about 5 cups worth of ingredients to go in a 1 quart jar (and yes, that IS what the book calls for, we double checked!) so I now have 6 jars with a bunch of flour, cocoa, baking soda, and salt and 1 jar with all that plus 1 cup of sugar and I am about to go dump all of it in the trash! While I have been writing this, I assigned my husband to check some of the other recipes and he has discovered 1 out of 5 recipes so far that will actually fit! The recipe that we tried was tasty, but if you are buying it for jar recipes, pick a different book!
