REVIEW OF DANGEROUS ANGELS FIVE WEETZIE BAT BOOKS

- I attend one of "those rich prep schools", and after reading this novel i would just like to compliment Sittenfield on how much they really got the politics and scenarios right. Sure, the characters are a little cliched, but this author is right on target with the descriptions and lives in the prep school world.

- I had high hopes for this book. Seemed like it would be a good story yet the author never fully develops Lee. You never really get a clear understanding of who she was before she went to Ault-that makes it very difficult to understand why she is so emotionally crippled during her time there. I ended up getting so bored with the entire book - your empathy for Lee quickly fades once you realize how lethargic and unmotivated she is. Don't waste your time on this one!
