REVIEW OF THE STRUCTURE OF ARGUMENT 8TH EDITION

- John's Story (The Jesus Chronicles, Book 1) This is written as a fiction story, but the history that one can learn from it is beneficial. The book takes you back to the time after Christ's death and resurrection, when John, the last disciple alive, is 90 years old. He knew he had to share his story of his time with Jesus. Not feeling healthy, he has one of his mentees to write down his memories of that time. If one is into learning more about the Bible, the life of Jesus and his followers, this is a book to read.

- I have loved biographies for a long time now, this is one of my favorites. Her life style is intreaging, and it boggles me to know that each page in this book is true. Jane is far from being a good person, but her passion for life, love, and writing supass any wrongs she has done. If you love life read this book; and if you don't, find out what your missing.
