REVIEW OF PRACTICE MASTERS FOR GEOMETRY ANSWER KEY FREE

- I am constantly amazed by those in the world who believe that everything has to be new and controversial. I love fantasy series and have read all of Tolkein, Brooks, McKiernan, and even Jordan (end the series Robert!!). I read the books because they are entertaining. Do I know what is going to happen? Yes. Is there going to be a completely new twist on the idea? Probably not in this genre, although the Runelords (David Farland) and Witch series (James Clemens) come close. It's rare. This book has a hero, villain, troubling times, and a noble goal of protecting the helpless. The fate of the world relies on the shoulders of a reluctant hero. What else do you want? It is written well. You can read it easily and although there are a lot of characters, it is easy to keep track of them. For people who are looking for an enjoyable read, pick this up. For people who are looking for an Earth-shattering revelation into the fantasy world, get a life.

- Eragon is a thrilling book packed with intrigue and mystery. This starts with a boy finding the ONLY dragon egg not in the hands of the evil empire. The egg had been in the hands of the varden, the rebel forces working against the empire. The empire will go to any lengths to get the dragon and the dragon's rider on their side, and the varden wants the dragon and rider just as badly. Caught between two forces, Eragon and the dragon Saphira must learn to control their powers with the help of an old storyteller, Brom, and figure out for which side to fight before they are forced to chose.
