REVIEW OF CHAPTER 7 CARBOHYDRATES TEST BANK

- This is a classic story, a powerful testimony. David Wilkerson, I believe, was specially chosen for this mission which seemed impossible at the beginning. I commend him for his faith and dedication to God's people. I wish to meet him one day. This novel has changed and impacted the lives of many teenagers. I encourage every adult and teenageer to read these books. Run Baby Run by Nicky Cruz, The Cross and the Switchblade by David Wilkerson, and Coming Clean. I am also trying to find another book "PURER THAN THE DIAMOND" by J.C De Ferrieres, published in the late 60s. I will be going on a mission trip next year, so I will be purchasing those books to distribute among the youth. I have read so many books when I was growing up as a young Catholic Christian, but these are the first novels I would recommend for our teenagers. These novels should be advertised in and out of season; be in every bookstore in the USA, Caribbean, Europe and the whole world, at every Youth Rally, every Crusade, convention, bookstores in churches. We need novels like these more than ever before, a time when we are faced with a "CULTURE OF DEALTH" in our society. CATHOLIC CHRISTIAN, ATLANTA, GA.

- The book is great for simple reading, and I found it to be quite interesting throughout. It is not "deep" and is good for light reading. The characters are quite interesting although not much emotion is shown. It does give some insight to human behaviour and society's wrongful conduct. However the ending made me wonder if the author wanted to keep the option of a sequel. It could have ended more conclusively.
