REVIEW OF LOMBARDINI ENGINE LDA 450 KATALOG

- Having greatly enjoyed "Deja Dead," I really looked to Death Du Jour. Unfortunately it is a complete disappointment. I found the story overly contrived and coincidental. The characters were wooden. Frankly, the whole thing seemed like a bad movie where no one had the courage to ask

"why, this story." In summary, don't bother with this lousy novel.

- This is a non-humorous book by Gary Paulsen, which seems to be an exception to most of his other books. It's very dramatic and I loved it when I read it the first time. Certain parts of it remind me of the Lord of the Rings books, especially toward the end of the book. It has a creepy conclusion too, a world destroyed by disease and then rebuilt from the ashes. Trevor
