REVIEW OF DYNVOX MAESTRO USER GUIDE

- What a disappointment. As an avid "Earth's Children" series reader, I waited with breathless anticipation for this next book. Basically "The Shelters of Stone" can be summed up as a rehash of previous books, absolutely no plot and no lead-in to the next book. Haven't been this disappointed since "Star Wars: Episode One." Nuff said!

- I enjoyed the first four books, but couldn't believe this was written by the same author. Slow, painfully repetitive, and WAY too long for very little plot development. I made myself finish it (skimming the last half) just because I wanted to know "what happened" - in case there's a next book. Not sure I'll even read any next book at this point unless the author and editor make a concerted effort to trim. Also not sure why author has to make Ayla the inventor of all human advancements - first to tame a horse, first to use a spear thrower, first to use a sewing needle, etc. Makes the character

Talk about a that much more Renaissance woman! unbelievable!
