REVIEW OF CLENOW STOCKS ON THE MOVE

- This book should be required reading for every high school history class. The sacrifices of those who fought in WWII should NEVER BE FORGOTTEN. Several chapters will give you a lump in the throat, if not tears in your eyes. However on page 139, Mr. Brokaw refers to General George S. Patton's IVORY HANDLED pistols as Pearl Handled. General Patton corrected a journalist on this subject by saying "Only a pimp in a New Orleans whorehouse would have a pearl handled pistol."

- I cannot say that I have ever experienced war. Yet what we as a younger generation have faced is very clearly a far cry from peace. This terrorism against us as a country makes us just as good as those that contributed to the war efforts of WWII. I am taken aback as Brokaw decided that in his godly manor that his father, and his father's friends were the numro uno. Every generation has its fair share of heroes it is horrible to pinpoint one generation to this and cover up what really needed to be said, that we lost thousands of men and women to a cause that needed to be fought. But recent events change the outlook of WWII, September 11 has shown the world that we as a country not a generation are the greatest, WE as a country not singled out retired folks who did do a great job, but in the book it failed to show the real deal it glossed over too much.
