REVIEW OF 8868332809 IT30

• Drivel and more Drivel....Grisham has lost his touch. You can't write good suspense novels using Harlequin Romance Techniques, filling the pages with unsubstantial filler. If you liked "The Pelican Brief", and was unsatisfied with "The Bleachers", then you and I will agree on this one.

• I think that the book ought not to have been advertised like a thriller or suspense novel. It was entirely too slow moving and had too much detail to be one. It was a good novel about life in a small town in the south in the past, but definitely not a Grisham thriller. I thought that the cover and the back description were both misleading. They did not really tell what the book was actually about. I thought that the plot "twist" was way to obvious.
