REVIEW OF MASNOON HAJJ O UMRAH SMALL DARUSSALAM PK

• Born and raised in Indianapolis, I grew up with Roselyn's being around the corner. I enjoyed the book, there's pictures of lost but not forgotten memories from the past. The recipes are a little confusing at first, keep in mind this was originally done in a bakery. I tried the recipe for the Sweetheart Roll (husband's valentine gift) and it was great!!! I made four from the recipe, Everyone loved them, but I think each time you would make this you would get closer to the real thing. I am so Happy I found this book, I had seen it years ago in Indiana, ( I was there for a funeral) I thought I will get this later and never did, so when I began looking, these books are hard to find, I was so delighted that Amazon had one for sale. Thank You Amazon.com!!!

• Chesterton's text is a great stand for the true rationality and beauty of Orthodoxy. In reflecting up on his own discovery of orthodoxy, he seeks to show the sanity and beauty of Christian thought when compared to contemporary philosophies. It would be difficult to tie down the work in a brief thesis, as it exists as a loose auto-biography of his thought processes coming to orthodox faith. If I could be so bold as to venture to a thesis, it is that orthodoxy is the only guarantor of sanity, beauty, and forward progress in the world. Beyond this, the text speaks for the specifics of these ideas. Chesterton's text is witty and insightful. For this reason, I suggest it most highly. More than once did I laugh heartily at his reflections upon contemporary think. Additionally, I often felt a chill as I thought, "This man has his finger on a truly good thought here." I suggest Orthodoxy to all, for it is an accessible, excellent read that will truly affirm a true vision of beauty in the world.
