REVIEW OF TOMBS OF ATUAN

- I found this book entertaining and a quick, easy read. Gresh & Weinberg clearly & simply explain what could be complex scientific concepts about most of my favorite superheroes. But you have to be flexible about perceiving the content, though, as their science isn't friendly to all comic heroes. They are balanced (Batman, X-Men could happen, Superman, Spiderman, Flash, the science doesn't hold). They are pro-comic, I thought, and you'd have to be: only comicbook lovers will like this book. I found "Science" a chance to laugh about the heroes I still love and that mean so much to me, and they shed some light on writing in this genre. Good summer beach reading.

- When I started reading this book I couldn't put it down. Anne Shirley goes to Redmond College and meets some new friends while she's there. She moves into a house with some of her friends, and gets a few unique marriage proposals. If you liked the other Anne books, this one will most certainly live up to the highest expectations.
