REVIEW OF 8871925580 IT16

- This book is a nice companion book for someone learning Arabic and it explains some basic Arabic grammar in a way that is easy to understand, and the layout of this small book is nice. I also like the cover. I use it when I tutor. If you are looking for an all-encompassing grammar book, this is not it, but it is a very good start for someone to have decent grammar. It covers many bases.
- The contents of this book are unedited garbage. And the reason is....Books published by General Books LLC are put together using an OCR automated scanning device which can miss complete pages. Typos are frequent and there's no table of contents. There is ABSOLUTELY NO EDITING of the book and the scanning is done by a robot (probably the reason half the book is on Wimax - the robot picked up something else as well). This is all stated on the publishers web site (google them and read - you'll be as shocked as I was when you get all the details). The owner of General Books LLC, VDM Publishing, is notorious for these ripoffs - almost every review of their books (around 500,000 of them from one imprint or another now listed on Amazon) by an actual buyer is negative, many are extremely so. If you have bought the version from General

Books LLC by mistake, you can return to Amazon within 30 days (but check Amazon's Return Policy for the details)
