REVIEW OF HOW TO DJ

- Classic Buber...insightful, introspective...a good read...you will learn a lot about Buber...and if you think about it...soemthing about yourself.
- Safe Return Doubtful is a very interesting and well-written book, but suffers from the common disease of polar writing: glorification of suffering. The British being the true pioneers in the field of needless suffering, the book naturally emphasizes the British view of the polar expeditions. As a consequence, Amundsen is villified and Scott glorified, for example. Strangely, the book doesn't discuss the greatest, most heroic, polar expedition-Shackleton's attempt to cross Antarctica.All in all, this is a worthwhile read if you are a polar exploration buff.
