REVIEW OF AUDI S4 B6 V8 SERVICE MANUAL

- In this book, two young kids find a book called 'So You Want to Be a Wizard'. This dramatically changes both of their lives as they begin to study the magical art. This story has action, humor, and magic. I thought that the story was very unique and interesting, a twist on the Harry Potter series, but at some moments I found that an important piece of action would happen in half a sentence and I had almost missed it. In my opinion, it was a good book for younger and less advanced readers that sometimes lacked detail. Recommended to both boys and girls ages 8-10.
- This is a great book, but I wanted to comment that a lot of people read it and were scared by it. Some of it deals with rather adult content, but this is White Wolf we're talking about here: almost EVERYTHING in the World Of Darkness is adult, mature, scary, and...well, dark. I didn't find it frightening at all. Then again, this comes from a guy who read Clanbook: Baali without batting an eyelid. So if I had to "warn" others about the adult content of this book, I'd honestly say that it's nothing out of the ordinary in the World Of Darkness.
