REVIEW OF WERE YOU THERE HYMNARY

• If you are working in community theater or a school setting, this book is invaluable. There are some strange omissions, but a huge number of shows are included and thoroughly covered. A lot of the information is not usually found elsewhere: comments on needed props, set, costuming, general pros and cons. I have used it over and over again.

• "A Lantern in Her Hand" is such a deep story, that I could only handle reading it in small portions. Each and every time, I would close the book with such sadness in my heart. Abbie worked so hard as a mother and a wife, and sacrificed her dreams and wantings, that it made me think of what my parents might have set aside for me. Her children, when grown, bothered me so much, to think their mother old-fashioned and somewhat senile. If only we can have such fond and cherished memories when we live to be in our 80s. I recommend.
